Old Business:

Stainless steel table for kitchen/freezer for rectory. Looking for new or good used.

Pam has permission to purchase reasonable alternative, within designated budget < $1000 for both

Need for new officers—any volunteers or know possibility?

New Business:

Fr. Biju would like volunteers willing to provide a meal and company to any visiting priests that come for the weekend and stay at the rectory while filling in for our priest. Marge Lee currently gets the rectory prepared for priests and has fresh fruit, muffins or bread, coffee and snacks available. Terese Slattery has volunteered to provide a meal. Pam will talk to Fr. Biju for more information as to his specific wishes.

Sauerkraut Supper: Recommendations to Sauerkraut Supper Committee/and get other parishioners' evaluations

Carry-out dinners only—were slightly less labor intensive, ended earlier the night of the dinner, less expenses (tent, music, etc.), profit/person greater than with full dinner (*note—price for carry-out was raised to $14/dinner from $12.)

Pros and Cons for having full dinner—Pros: community event. Cons: labor intensive, less profit/dinner, need to change format, may not have workers needed.

Considerations for this year: (1) drive-thru dinner plus raw kraut sale, (2) drive-thru dinner, raw kraut and coffee cake sales, (3) drive-thru dinner and inside seating for carry-out portions, coffee cake and beverage sale in basement.

Other fund raising ideas were explored to supplement the money raised by the Sauerkraut Supper. (1) 50/50 raffle. Mary Filla to research license for raffles. (2) More church potluck dinners, 4/year suggested, summer and Epiphany for sure, good-will donations proposed. (3) Donuts on Sunday mornings to resume, 1 time/mo., good-will donations proposed. (4) Ask Ann Hundt re: Packer raffle possibility.

July 17, 2022 to be first church pot-luck. Deb Leis donating brats. Games at the ball-field.

A reminder to thank the Blessed Mother for listening to our prayers and that the Rosary is prayed every first Sunday evening of the month at church at 7:30 pm.

Prayers for Donald Altoff, Madonna Hundt's twin brother who passed away recently, and lectors to be reminded to mention the intentions in the Book of Prayer
