Treasurer's Report—treasurer's report as of Mar. 6, 2023 read by Mary. Old Business:

Need for new officers—any volunteers or know possibility? Ruth Leis's name suggested as she is very organized.

Christmas cookie bake sale Dec. 10/11. Proceeds went to Casa Hogar. ~$385

Sauerkraut Supper: Results of informal meeting and survey of parishioners 2-5-2023

Majority in favor of modified sit-down dinner with carry-out. Return to camaraderie of past. It was stressed that we will need plenty of help.

Need to start groundwork for reorganizing supper to bring ideas to SS committee:

Need to decide if bake sale in rear of church or in garage

Use carry-out containers downstairs, bread/pie at end of serving line

Tent/beverages/entertainment

New Business:

With all of the new members joining the parish, it has been suggested by PFC and PPC that the new members are welcomed in some way. It was decided to send a welcome card and draft a letter of welcome to the parish and explaining PCCW activities. Mary and Pam will draft a letter.

With the commencement of the Inspired by the Spirit Campaign, Fr. Biju has asked the PCCW for help with refreshments at a couple receptions where the campaign will be presented to parishioners. The following have volunteered to help:

Dates/times: March 26 at 7:00 pm in rectory—Mary and Pam

April 23 after Mass in church basement—Terese and Marge

April 30 at 7:00 pm at St. Joe's school basement in conjunction with St. Joes—decide after next meeting

There is a possibility of getting a refund of money from the DCCW because of excess unused funds. Suggestions for the use of the money: kitchen update, increase donations to our charities, capital campaign or other church needs. When we receive the money, we will pursue ideas. Definite need is new kitchen curtains/dividers. Pam and Marge will research this.

Next PCCW sponsored event to be a Summer Picnic. Date to be June 25 or July 16. Pam will check calendar with Melissa to see if any weddings or conflicts.

Blessed Sacrament is having an art fair Aug. 26, 2023. They are looking for artists who would like to rent a booth for $50/$75 shared. Keep own profits. If interested, call Sandy at 608-787-6482.

Illnesses: Please keep in your prayers Madonna Hundt, Larry Cavadini, Bishop Callahan

Next Meeting: April 3, 2023 at 7:00 pm
